Step 1, Getting Started: Read all instructions before starting. Assemble all supplies.

Step 2, Making Jar Wraps: For quart jar, cut a 4" x 12" and 4" x 1" piece from pink striped paper. Wrap and glue around jar, piecing with 1" strip of paper at back. Similarly cut, wrap and glue a 3 1/2" x 12" and 3 1/2" x 1" piece of green striped paper to center of first wrap. For pint jar, cut wrap and glue a 3" x 10 1/2" strip of pink striped paper and a 2 1/2" x 10 1/2" strip of pansy print paper around jar.

Step 3, Decorating Jars: Place lid on backside of pansy print paper and trace around lid with a pencil. Cut paper on traced lines. Place lid and paper circle on top of pint jar. Screw bands onto both jars. Cut a 1/2" x 9 1/2" strip from pink striped paper. Wrap and glue strip around band on quart jar. Similarly glue a strip of green striped paper around band on pint jar.

Referring to photo, for quart jar, cut a cluster of five pansies and leaves and another group of 2 pansies and leaves. Slightly curl the edges of some of the leaves to give dimension. Glue to front of jar wrap. Cut additional individual pansies from the paper to match first cluster, eliminating the leaves. Use mounting tape to attach on top of original pansies. Repeat to attach a third layer of pansies, trimming around just individual petals or 2-3 petals of the flower, adding more dimension to the flower clusters.

Step 4, Finishing Touches: Cut a small tag from each striped paper. Punch hole near top center of tags. Personalize tags with silver pen. Wrap a 24" length of beige fiber around neck of jar and tie in a bow. Slide tag onto tails of fiber and glue to back of tag to secure. Place votive cup and candle in top of quart jar.
